Approval of Minutes (IAC-M-140, 9 Feb.)1. Action: Approved.

NSC Semi-Annual
Supplementary Status
Report on the Foreign Intelligence Program
 (IAC-D-55/6 (Second Revision))

2. Action: Approved as amended, subject to further amendment by State of paragraph X.1.

3. Discussion: The DCI expressed his doubt that this reporting procedure was useful. He proposed that the present report go forward and that the problem then be taken up with the appropriate NSC personnel. It was brought out by discussion that these reports are requested by the NSC Executive Secretary, the President having directed that the departments responsible for national security programs prepare reports on the status of those programs semi-annually. The current report is the seventh produced since July 1951.

Proposed Release of SNIE 11-54

25X1

4. Action: Approved.

Soviet Capabilities for Attack
on the U. S. Through 1957
 (SNIE 11-2-54)

5. Action: Approved as amended.

Soviet Bloc Capabilities
for Economic Warfare
 (NIE 10-54)

6. Action: Deferred until the next meeting to allow further work on matters briefly discussed, particularly the question of gold sales.

IAC-M-141

16 February 1954

25X1

G-2 Proposal for an Estimate with Respect to Southeast Asia
(See IAC-M-140, paras. 3 & 4)

8. Action: Agreed that the Members would study the proposal circulated by General Willems at the meeting and telephone their concurrence or comments to the Office of National Estimates.

Matters for NSC Briefing

9. Discussion: The DCI stated that the Council might be interested in the pictures of alleged Soviet aircraft currently appearing in the press. A paper prepared for the JCS was made available to the Director. Mr. Dulles undertook to examine, with Air Force assistance, the source of such photographs, said to have been available to certain publishers over the past four years.

Secretary's Note:

The Board of National Estimates has recommended the non-release to any foreign government of SNIE 11-2-54 (memo to IAC dated 12 February 1954). This proposal will not be reconsidered except upon request by a member agency.
